A THREATENING BLACK CLOUD hangs on the horizon as wind-blown forest fire rages toward the little lumbering town of Forestville, (foreground), located some 400 miles east of Montreal. The little settlement and its adjoining airport stand in the way of the advancing flames. A converted warplane landing barge, the R. A. McNeil, is standing by at a Forestville pier ready to take aboard the district's women and children should evacuation become necessary. The vessel has a carrying capacity of 1500 persons.

A SCOUT DOG, used to track down bandits in Malaya, is hoisted aboard a British naval helicopter after completing a mission in the dense jungle. Handlers claim the highly-trained dogs take easily to flight and come willingly for the lift to hovering fighters.

SHAH MOHAMMED REZA PAHLAVI and his Queen, Farah, have flown to Baghdad from their native Iran where Prime Minister Mohammad Mossadegh had control after assuming an attempt by the Shah's military guard to displace him. The Iranian Embassy in Baghdad said large scale arrests were in progress in Tehran, after the abortive coup by the Imperial Iranian Guards of the Shah.

SCULPTURE BY TOUCH—Totally blind since the age of four, 27-year-old Leonard Lord of Paris, uses his sensitive hands to model clay by touch. The above sculpture, a nude reclined "Athena," was featured at the 40th "Salon Des Femmes" an exhibition of the works of female painters, sculptors and designers.

NO ARGUMENT FROM HER—French starlet Simone Bach is playing out of the controversy over shorter adult lengths for the time being. She's satisfied with a bathing suit and the beach at Juan Les Pins, France.

LIFESAVER—Dr. G. B. Brown, "Dr. Polo" of Los Angeles, Calif., tests his new respiratory ventilator meter which rejects failing lung muscles. In 35 years Dr. Brown has treated more than 16,000 polo cases and has seen the lung paralysis death toll decrease from 100 per cent. to the present 31 per cent.
